

spotlight on village life

review special ad-feature

Drybrook

A SMALL and attractive village lying just north of Cinderford, in what was once part of the Royal Hunting Forest.

The village originally lay on the old route from Gloucester to Monmouth, via Mitcheldean and Ruardean. Its fortunes rose with the extraction of coal and stone during the industrial revolution and Drybrook expanded out to Harrow Hill south end of the village at Harrow Hill.

Now its a captivating community hidden and often overlooked in the depths of the Forest.

HALE & CO. (Drybrook) Ltd.

Timber & Builders' Merchants

Proud to have been trading from Drybrook for over 100 years

BUILDING MATERIALS:

sales@haleco.co.uk 01594 545300 www.haleco.co.uk

TOOL HIRE:

hire@haleco.co.uk 01594 542853 www.haleshire.co.uk